

Associate

1500 Market St., Suite 3500E
Philadelphia, Pennsylvania 19102
Phone 215-575-7047
Fax (215) 575-7200
mccampbell@dilworthlaw.com

Assistant:

Sophia Scott
Direct 215-575-7030
sscott@dilworthlaw.com

Practices

Corporate and Business
Mergers & Acquisitions
Securities

Max Campbell counsels public and private companies on all matters related to corporate governance, securities regulation, and mergers and acquisitions. Whether involved in business litigation or a commercial transaction, Max brings an attention to detail to each matter, to ensure that clients achieve their goals.

Education

B.A., Franklin &
Marshall College, 2014
J.D., cum laude,
Villanova University
School of Law, 2019

Max developed an interest in corporate law while serving as a judicial extern to the Honorable Christopher J. Burke of the United States District Court for the District of Delaware. While in law school, Max argued to defend a company in a securities class action in the 59th Annual Theodore L. Reimel Moot Court Competition, placing in the Quarterfinals of a thirty team pool.

Max has worked with the Pennsylvania Innocence Project to exonerate innocent individuals in the Philadelphia area that have been wrongfully convicted of crimes.

Bar Admissions

Pennsylvania,
Application Pending

Max earned his J.D. from Villanova University Charles Widger School of Law, where he served on the Villanova Law Review, and his B.A. from Franklin & Marshall College.