FOUR ATTORNEYS PROMOTED WITHIN DILWORTH PARTNERSHIP

02/25/2019

February 25, 2019 (Philadelphia, PA) - Dilworth Paxson LLP is pleased to announce that partner Edward “Ted” F. Behm, Jr. has been promoted within the partnership ranks of the Firm, while attorneys Stephanie Searles Vogel, Benjamin W. Spang, and Ira N. Glauber were elevated to Partners.

“Each of these promotions is a well-deserved recognition of the time, energy, and talent devoted by these individuals to providing the highest quality counsel to our clients” said Dilworth Paxson’s Chairman and CEO, Ajay Raju. Continuing his praise, Raju noted that “Ted, Stephanie, Benjamin, and Ira are more than just elite attorneys, they also share a spirit of collaboration that is a hallmark of Dilworth’s partnership.” To Raju, these promotions are also meaningful for the future of the firm “as Dilworth Paxson continues to forge new paths of success and build on its rich legacy, it is important to continue to build our partnership with individuals who share in our firm’s core values and are aligned with our firm’s bold vision for the future.”

Ted F. Behm, Jr. is Chair of the Firm’s Patent practice group and has substantial experience in all aspects of intellectual property practice, including the preparation and prosecution of domestic and foreign patents, trademarks, and copyrights; the litigation of patent, trademark, trade dress, trade secret, copyright, domain name, and contractual matters; and the counseling of clients in intellectual property opinion, transactional, and capitalization and acquisition matters. In addition, he has significant experience in representing clients in reexamination, reissue, and Inter Partes Review proceedings before the U.S. Patent and Trademark Office. Ted also counsels both established and start-up companies in all phases of intellectual property-related transactional matters, including mergers and acquisitions, IP valuations and fundraising strategies.

Stephanie Searles Vogel is an attorney in the Firm’s Tax, Employee Benefits, and Trusts & Estates practice groups. She represents individuals, small and large businesses, and tax-exempt entities in a broad range of tax areas, including tax planning, trusts and estates, employee benefits issues, as well as charity and foundation governance issues.

Prior to joining Dilworth, she served as a Senior Associate and an Experienced Associate at PricewaterhouseCoopers in Philadelphia, where she worked in the Mergers and Acquisitions tax group with large, multinational, corporate clients. Her legal pro bono experience includes working on various tax law cases for low-income clients and also preparing Pennsylvania and federal tax returns. She has worked on cases with Philadelphia VIP, PVLA and Pennsylvania SeniorLAW Helpline.
